

Glimpse into Yesterday, 1-Room School

PERHAPS NOTHING in the Rochester area is more picturesque than its cobblestone buildings. This one is a former one-room school, Chili District No. 4, on Scottsville Road near Morgan Road, one of the last of its kind to be abandoned. This is truly "Cobblestone Country." Within a 50 to 60 mile area there are probably 250 cobblestone structures. To promote interest, a Cobblestone Society was formed in 1961.
