

Historic Masonry Workshop

The Cobblestone Museum partnered with Brian Daddis Heritage Masonry for a successful workshop on May 18. The full day session attended by about 10 registrants spent the morning in a classroom session and afternoon with a hands-on demonstration with lime mortar. Brian Daddis taught this workshop at our Thompson-Kast Visitors Center. Participants gathered from around NYS.