

11/84

Essay - Survey

From D.W. Pease "The Cobb. Houses of Upper NYS"

"In Walther there is a long low house with three front entrances. The field cobbles are rather coarse but are laid five courses to the gable."

Many Smith - Hamlin Historian - Blossom family owned it - there were 2 brothers who were both "Cobblers" shoe makers - possibly home-store-home.