

From Carriages To Cars

Building above, in West Henrietta, built almost 150 years ago, was for years a shop where carriages and buggies were built and repaired. Now it's about to open as restaurant, fitted out in appropriate style which includes antique Gone-with-the-Wind lamps (right), to light up hand-adzed beams and pegged joints of framework. (See Charlie Wagner's After Dark column.)

