Remember one thing: our old homes are a thing of beauty. Modern architecture has nothing to remember except drabness.
Be proud of your home, look back to the builder who was part artist, part engineer and a gentleman who took pride in his work, which is a lost art.

SCHOOL

STORE

The heritage of our old buildings should be preserved in the best possible manner. Central New York has some of the finest Cobblestones houses in existance, not to slight the Colonials, Greek Revivals and Victorians.

I have had the privilege to do the restoration of some of these homes. To further the restoration-preservation of these homes, I have acquired the old machinery and tools to duplicate in exact detail, the molding, trim and panels etc. Also in the course of restoration, I have collected many items that are originals. The Old Schoolhouse will act as a store for the items listed. These items will be added to and deleted from as supply problems arise.
