Orleans residents will fondly remember these two familiar faces. This photo taken twenty-three years ago shows John Tucker, Supervisor from Kendall and Chairman of the Orleans County Board of Supervisors collaborating with Mrs. Doris Craddock of Albion, who was Clerk of the Supervisor's Board. For decades the Clerk of the Board, is by nature of the job one of the most well-informed persons about Orleans County government; its policy, its workings, its demands. Supervisor Tucker is seen catching up-to-date on Board business after recovering from a foot wound he received while cleaning a rifle.
