AT THE FAIR

The photo this week shows Joseph B. Achilles who was Orleans County Historian from August 3, 1944 to December 23, 1957, pointing out some historical memorabilia he had on display at the fair around thirty-five years ago. This year I would like to do somewhat the same sort of thing. Therefore, as County Historian, I will be participating in Heritage Day at the fair on Thursday, July 27 from 10:30 a.m. until dusk.

The purpose of this is to be there to discuss various facets of our local heritage, to try to answer questions and to listen to your stories and ideas. Please feel free to bring in pictures or relics for identification. For example, if you want help in determining the architectural style of your home and its age, bring in a photo. Old maps and atlases will be on display for you to look at so you can tell who may have owned your house years ago. Other reference materials will also be available. Look for me and my display in the tent between the Curtis Pavilion and the Log Cabin at the 4-H Junior Fairgrounds, Knowlesville.
