

The one-room schoolhouse in Jeddo

By Bill Lattin, Orleans County Historian

In this photo taken during March 1903 we see students who attended school at District 13 in Ridgeway.

This one-room schoolhouse was located at Jeddo on Ridge Road just east of the Orleans-Niagara County Line. It includes students from grades 1 to 8.

The two women to the right are Ruby Payne and Kittie Fitzgerald.

Note the flag pole from the woods. An outhouse is also visible behind the school.
