

Lions Club helped keep downtown Albion clean a half century ago

By Bill Lattin, Orleans County Historian

Back around 1960 the Albion Lions Club provided trash barrels for downtown Albion. They were painted silver with black letters stating, "Help Keep Albion Clean."

The A & P Food Store shows in back of Ken Scharett's head while "Jack" Robinson wipes the can clean.
