

of Old Orleans

n County Historian

ols

No. 28
art of this
n a wide ad these mbolism.
forgotten
rly in our

red what not ever
o look ate typical of some
al News-

Eye - Om-
man; Any; Bible -
Column -

Circle - ant head
; Cross -
em of St.

sion and (flowers) -
Flaming
ot - True

obe with
; Heart -
Savior of

Laurel -
g glory -
yramid -

; Shield -
bones -
r things;

triumph,

justice; Triangle - Supreme being, Trinity; Thistle - Sin; Torch(right side up) - Eternal life, (upside down) - Death; Tulip - Love; Urn - Death.

Veil - Renunciation of world, modesty; Water lily - Baptism; Wheat bundle - Harvest; Willows - Grief, mourning; Winged globe - Immortality; Wreath - Memory, rejoicing, victory, beauty, life.

The photo below shows the beautiful Hood Monument in Hillside Cemetery at Holley. The ethereal female is pointing heavenward while holding an anchor symbolic of hope. On her head she wears a crown symbolizing Reward and Glory. It's also interesting to note the basic sculptured form and its position is not at all unlike the Statue of Liberty